Alcohol & Accessories

You provide the alcohol and we provide the rest! (50 GUESTS)

In order to help with the planning of your event, we have generated a customized shopping list based on your guest list and type of party. Please do not hesitate to further customize your shopping list based on the specifications of your guests. If your guests are not big wine drinks, perhaps you should purchase more beer – The same goes with scotch and tequila!

HARD ALCOHOL

- 4-5 750ml Vodka
- 1-2 750ml Gin
- 1-2 750ml Light Rum
- 1-2 750ml Tequila
- 1-2 750ml Bourbon Whiskey
- 1-2 750ml Scotch Whiskey

BEER & WINE

Beer: 6-8 Cases (½ light & ½ reg.) – White Wine: 3-5 Bottles – Red Wine: 3-5 Bottles

CHAMPAGNE TOAST

Each 750ml bottle will typically pour 6 glasses of champagne.

SIGNATURE COCKTAIL IDEAS

Make your big day more memorable with a signature cocktail.

Something Old

There are a ton of options here. An old-fashioned? If you're a vintage/Gatsby fan you might enjoy a gin rickey or a mint julep. Or you can plump for something old and refreshing: the Tom Collins.

Something New

Cherry Berry Fizz: Vodka, Simple Syrup, Lemon Juice, Cherry Juice and Chambord, shaken and strained over fresh ice and topped with Champagne. Garnish with a Lemon Twist.

Hibiscus Margarita: Tequila, Cointreau, Hibiscus Flower Infused Agave Syrup and Lime Juice, shaken and strained over fresh ice and garnished with an Orange Wedge.

The Bouquet Bloom: Sparkling Wine, Elderflower Liqueur and a Dash of Grenadine to blush.

Something Borrowed

The best advice I can give on this front is to give a classic cocktail a personal twist. There's plenty of options -- a 'Just Married' Julep, a Mint to be Mojito, a Groom Gimlet, a Tie the Knot Mai Tai, a Marry Me Margarita etc.

Something Blue

Lavender Blueberry Mojito: Light Rum, Mint Leaves, Lavender Syrup, Blueberries and Lime all muddled together and topped with Club Soda. Garnish with a Mint Sprig & Blueberry Skewer.
